A TIME

OF PARADOX

RELAX

WORK HARDER

HAVE FUN

BEHAVE YOURSELF

TOGETHERNESS

LONELINESS

A time of birth; A time of death; A time of togetherness; A time of loneliness;
A time of happiness; A time of sadness; This is the time of paradox: the age which has today's college student as its nucleus. He is in the midst of the entire spectrum; looking at both ends. The crucial question is which way will he turn after he has observed and learned.

A time of the old; A time of the new; A time to tear down; A time to build up;
A time of affluence; A time of poverty; A time to learn from one another - the young from the old and the old from the young. He must look at the past generation and at the future one and then decide which way to go. He must choose not because of popular opinion but because of personal belief. A time of the individual; A time of the group. This is the time of paradox.

Profiles in Courage

To sleep or

NEW DAWN

You are so young

And each day for you is new life run;

You've bumped into everyday confusion

And had your hopes disillusioned;

You go to school for education

And find new friendships in creation;

And then you discover life's cozy lawn

Because with each new friend there is a new dawn.

--John Tipton

That's not what it looks like to me!

Ha! Ha! Photos do lie.

I've got to get out of this place.

Crazy refs!!!

Wonder how I can meet him?

Hooty — Hoo!

This building will self-destruct in

I'll be the Dean
and your on Pro

You've got to be kidding!

If I could only find my cheat sheet .

Seventy carbon copies???

No one told me this was a TUPPERWARE Party!

Stifle yourself!

Thirty more minutes and I'll have the world's smiling record

Don't tell anyone I gave it to you

See — I can reach it!

Ding-a-who?

It's my ball and my net,
and I'll ...

You mean I'm campused?

I wish I'd stayed at home today.

Are you sure I'll need all of these?

I wish I could remember the words.

On no, the Phoenix has been hijacked!

EDITOR'S PAGE

Being editor of the 1972 Phoenix has been a great thrill to me. It has supplied both a challenge and a sense of satisfaction to me personally. The condensation of nine months of activities into a few pages is much easier said than done. But many people have been responsible for this book.

First, let me thank Mrs. McDonald who helped me to weather many rough spots in the production of the yearbook.

Second, my thanks go to Mr. Wendell Deyton and Mr. Harold McGehee, both of American Yearbook Company, for the opening section lay-outs and helping to get the book started.

Third, to Mr. Lillard Barrett and Colonel J. B. Leftwich, my thanks for some outstanding photographs.

Fourth, to those loyal staff members who have worked on the sections and offered ideas and time to make this book a reflection of the year — my sincerest thanks for their support.
